MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS:

Councilor Gordon thanked Reverend Dhaiti for speaking to Council tonight and for trying to make better of a situation that is an issue in the community. He explained there has been a lot of things said about the immigration issue that is not true and he would like to see it get smoothed over as we are all God's people. He expressed the importance of the community welcoming all law abiding citizens. He reminded everyone to be good to each other.

Councilor Wilkerson shared an experience he had at Meijer. He explained in his occupation he sees a lot of children who seem to lack the understanding of where they come from and who they should give respect to. He reminded people this is the start of construction season so to be cautious and patient while driving. He reminded everyone to be good neighbors.

Councilor Thompson advised there is a new arts group called Broke Ass Theatre which she loves because it is staged readings. She announced this Saturday at 7:00 p.m. at Zion Lutheran Church, there will be a play called The Christians. She explained they held their first Haitian Friends Lunch and Learn where they discussed rentals. She expressed her appreciation to Reverend Dhaiti and the other gentlemen for coming to Council and offering their assistance. She explained she doesn't see a problem with people coming here that appreciate Lima. She explained no human being is illegal and if you are here, you are home. She welcomed the new comers and explained she has learned the people of Lima are welcoming and good people.

Councilor Ehora also welcomed the Haitians to the community. She explained her family lineage and that people from everywhere come looking for jobs. She explained unless you are a Native American, we all came here from somewhere else. She thanked Reverend Dhaiti for coming to Council. She expressed the importance of finding solutions for what is happening in our community. She referenced Mother's Day and expressed the importance of cherishing your mother.

Councilor Jones referenced the Neighborhood Concerns Committee meeting on defining family which he thought went very well. He thanked all of the community members and Councilors who were a part of those conversations as he feels it is important to hear the different views and learning to relate to each other better.

Councilor Glenn thanked Reverend Dhaiti. He referenced the meeting he held regarding the Haitian community where many questions were asked. He advised per Job and Family Services there are currently 2400 jobs in the City of Lima and 40 Haitians were approved for food stamps. He explained Tony Geiger is the Law Director for the City of Lima and is not able to tell people not to come to Lima. He announced there will be another meeting on June 13th. He referenced a project he's been working on where someone will be able to get a free house which he is excited about. He thanked Councilor Thompson for an excellent job at the Youth Mental Health Day. He said they are no longer taking any more kids for the "Hire a Kid" program. He announced they are working on a club for young boys 6th grade to 8th grade. He explained “Neighbors helping Neighbors” just completed their third project.

Councilor Neeper congratulated Dr. Glenn on being inducted into the LCC Hall of Fame over the weekend. He wished everyone a Happy Mother’s Day.

President Dixon thanked Reverend Dhaiti for coming to Council and being a voice for his community and welcomed his community to the City of Lima with open arms. He reiterated that Lima, Ohio is not a Sanctuary City but they do welcome all. He wished all of the Mother’s and Aunts Happy Mother’s Day.
